

CDP congratulates

LANXESS AG

for being awarded a listing in the 2013

CDP CLIMATE DISCLOSURE LEADERSHIP INDEX (CDLI)

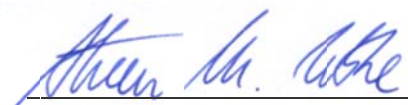

Germany, Austria and Switzerland (DACH)

by achieving a

CDP CLIMATE DISCLOSURE SCORE 91

The CDP Climate Disclosure Score assesses the completeness, quality and transparency of the 4,500 company responses to CDP's annual climate change information request, on a scale of 0 to 100. In 2013, LANXESS AG qualified for the CDLI DACH, the index composed of the best disclosing companies in the region. The average disclosure score in the DACH sample is 63. Your achievement reflects deep, long-term understanding of the impacts of climate-related risks and opportunities to your business together with broad transparency to stakeholders about emissions, management, strategies and other climate change related activities.
